MEADOWBROOK FARMS GOLF CLUB ANNOUNCES A MEMBER IS AMONG FINALISTS IN THE DRIVE, CHIP AND PUTT CHAMPIONSHIP

KATY, TX – Meadowbrook Farms Golf Club, a Heritage Golf Group property in Katy, Texas, is pleased to announce that 9-year-old Member, Treed Huang, is one of eleven finalists in the boy's 7-9 age group at the inaugural Drive, Chip and Putt Championship. The Championship, created by the Masters Tournament Foundation, United States Golf Association and PGA of America, will be played Sunday, April 6th, 2014, at Augusta National Golf Club. The final round of the Championship will include 88 boys and girls, ages 7-15, from all over the United States.

Huang earned an invitation to compete in the 2014 Drive, Chip and Putt Championship final after placing first in the Southern Texas Regional competition with an overall score of 119 points. During the regional competition, held on August 14th, 2013, Huang sank a 15-foot putt which solidified his trip to the Championship finals. The Drive, Chip and Putt Championship final will be played prior to the 2014 Masters Tournament, broadcasting live on the Golf Channel.

Huang, an active Member at Meadowbrook Farms Golf Club, plays and practices almost every day at the Club and has been playing golf since he was three years old.

"We are all very proud of Treed. In addition to his exceptional playing skills, he is a dedicated golfer, bright student and an overall great kid," said Layne Ricks, General Manager of Meadowbrook Farms Golf Club. "We congratulate Treed on his success in the regionals and wish him the best of luck in the finals."

Meadowbrook Farms Golf Club is a Greg Norman-designed 18-hole daily fee golf course. The Club opened at the end of 1999 and since then it has garnered outstanding accolades such as, ranked "Among the Best Courses in Texas," by Golf Digest in 2001 and 2003 and "Best Course in Houston," according to the Houston Sports News in 2000.
